

PRISONERS HAD HARD TIME WITH SUCHOW BANDITS

Miss Lucy Aldrich Tells of Harrowing Experiences

(By The Associated Press)
SHANGHAI, May 11.—Dr. Jacob G. Schuman, United States minister, who reached Shanghai last night, and who heard from Miss Lucy Aldrich, sister-in-law of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., the relation of her experience with the Suchow bandits, when he met her after her release at Tsinanfu, gave the interview to the Associated Press today in Miss Aldrich's own words.

Miss Aldrich's account of her experiences immediately followed the wrecking of the Shanghai-Peking express, last Sunday morning, was practically the same as the stories related by others. When the train was derailed by the bandit she thought at first it was an ordinary wreck, and then a thought flashed through her mind the commotion might indicate an outbreak of one of China's incipient wars.

Her first thought was for the jewels she had with her—family heirlooms—and these she was able to hide before she was seized by the bandits.

Having done this, she was barely able to put on her slippers and a dressing gown when a brigand entered her apartment. The robber, a dirty, ragged, truculent scoundrel carried a rifle and bayonet.

"Then," Miss Aldrich said, "I was marched off the train and herded outside with the other passengers. We all were cold in our night dresses and gowns."

"The succeeding hours were a nightmare. There were about 20 bandits in our convoy, all carrying bundles of loot. I tried to forget my own suffering in the chilly air and with my feet bruised by the rough trail through my thin slippers; others were more scantily clad than I and many of them were barefooted."

"We toiled on thru the night, sometimes along narrow footpaths and sometimes over rough fields."

"Dawn showed the outlines of the mountains ahead and my heart sank as I contemplated the distance we had to go, strung out along the way in single file."

"In the gathering daylight I noticed that several men who had started in our party from the train among the prisoners no longer were with us and I asked our guards where they had gone. I was told that they had been sent in another direction."

"Under the pitiless beating, prodding and sometimes stabbing of the guards to make the Chinese prisoners keep up the fast pace set by the brigands, several of these began to cry piteously."

"Kill Chinese Prisoner."

"Just when I felt that I must drop from exhaustion, one of the Chinese prisoners near me sank to the ground unable to rise again. A bandit poured over a torrent of oaths and abuse, dropped his bundles of loot and fired his rifle point blank into the man on the ground."

"This act terrified the remainder of the prisoners and we began to realize our desperate plight."

"We trudged stolidly on nobody speaking and finally we reached the wooded foothills. We climbed upward and when we reached the top I sank down in my tracks."

"Then the bandits began sorting out the plunder. It was a miscellaneous array, jewels, clothing, bedding, money, door handles and brass fixtures taken from the train, one mattress and some pillows."

"It was only when I discovered that throughout the terrible march from the scene of the hold-up I had been carrying some of my rings clenched in my hand."

"Some of the articles they had stolen puzzled the brigands. They passed a hot water bag from hand to hand in a vain effort to fix its use. A tube of tooth paste, not only baffled them, but frightened them as well, but when I undertook to demonstrate its use they laughed aloud."

"One of the marauders tied on Miss MacFadden's hat and I was watching him when another walked toward me and poked his carbine into my face. Despairingly I mustered a smile, trying to convince him that I was not afraid to die. This caused him to laugh and he even said me the compliment of patting my shoulder."

"A group of the gang's leaders held a parley. Then one of them turned to me, pointed back into the distance the way we had come and all marched off leaving me alone."

Takes Back Trail.

"I waited for some time fearing they would return and then set out on the back trail."

"My feet were so sore that I could hardly walk and my wrists were black and blue from being dragged along by my captors."

"I trudged along thru the day seeing only an occasional inhabitant of the country and all these invariably fled at my approach. Then it began to rain, but just as darkness fell I discovered a village ahead. I managed to get into it before the

COMPLIANCE WITH BANDITS' DEMANDS IS URGED BY PINGER

Also Implores Withdrawal of Government Troops

(By The Associated Press)
TIEN TSIN, China, May 11.—Major Roland Pinger, U. S. A., one of the captive passengers of the Suchow bandit train raid, has sent out a letter from the brigands stronghold recently recommending compliance with the outlaws' terms and imploring that government troops be withdrawn.

It is declared the bandits have refused to treat with the commander of the troops surrounding the stronghold because the chief-tain of the outlaws and the army officers have a blood enmity. The commander is said to have executed the brother of the bandit chief, who himself, was a bandit leader.

Negotiations are declared to be proceeding somewhat haltingly with a Kiangsu general and, if the brigands demands for troop withdrawal are carried out, it is believed the prisoners soon will be freed.

Chinese prisoners who have escaped are said to have recognized among the bandit leaders former officers of General Chang Ching-Yao, governor of the province of Hunan in 1920 when the Rev. R. Reimert an American missionary was murdered by troops there. At that time the American legion legation demanded that Chang be held responsible for the crime.

The bandits are said to have wrecked the Shanghai-Peking express as a last resort to throw off the government troops that were pressing them too closely.

The outlaws, it is reported have demanded the withdrawal of the surrounding troops to Tsinanfu and also the restitution of their former army status. Communication is being maintained with the bandits through peddlers who belong to the gang. No others are allowed to approach the stronghold.

Entrenched in a castle-like retreat on the top of a mountain which is tunneled and capable of resisting a siege, the outlaws virtually hold the upper hand. It is said, however, there are some what short of water. It is estimated there are 8,000 bandits within a radius of fifty miles.

NEW WITNESS IS SOUGHT IN HOUSE OF DAVID PROBE

Atty. General Goes
Out of State to Get Evidence

(By The Associated Press)
ST. JOSEPH, Mich., May 11.—Following a new lead concerning the whereabouts of a witness desired to give testimony before Judge Harry Dingeman the one man grand juror investigating charges of immorality at the house of David, A. J. Daugherty, attorney general left tonight for a point outside the state where it was reported the witness desired was to be found.

Judge Dingeman adjourned court until Monday; Daugherty's preparations led to the belief that the person sought had been a resident of the colony within the past five years.

The unexpected ending of the third week of the investigation tomorrow came after a morning session at which the testimony given previously by Mrs. Lillian Hannaford and Benjamin Hill with whom she left the colony was re-checked with them before the jury. Mrs. Hannaford is said to have remembered some facts which corroborated the testimony of other witnesses and which were brought out when she was questioned the first time.

Hill is reported to have given a new lead which it is thought will enable the authorities to locate a girl who until recently was a member of the colony, but who has left.

The second appearance before the jury of Benjamin Ruble brought with it reports that the prosecution expected to press him strongly for whereabouts of his wife, Gladys Ramford Ruble with for the location of her sister, Ruth Bamford Reed of which they believe he also has knowledge.

AMBASSADOR IS BACK HOME FOR VACATION TRIP

George Harvey Tells Reporters He Hopes to Go Fishing

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, May 11.—George Harvey, American ambassador to Great Britain came home today on the Steamship George Washington for a vacation and answered a barrage of questions by newspapermen with such diplomatic phrases that he left them still wondering who was the answer to reports that he has resigned, or plans to resign to handle the 1924 campaign for President Harding's renomination and reelection.

"I have heard nothing about the reports," was his first answer.

"Will you flatly deny that you have come home to resign?" he was asked.

"I have come home on leave. I am going to Peabach"—the Vermont home town he put on the front pages recently in an address in which he declared everybody in Peabach had British ancestors—"and I hope to go fishing."

"Will you make a categorical denial of the rumor?"

"I do not see any reason for doing so," he retorted.

"Yes I am going to resign," the ambassador smiled. "All of my predecessors resigned save one, and he died. I shall resign."

"When I am not prepared to say."

Colonel Harvey said he would remain in New York a few days before going to Washington to report to Secretary Hughes and President Harding. After that, he added, he would go to Peabach for a rest.

No Hint of Resignation
Washington, D. C., May 11.—Coinciding with the return to the United States today of George Harvey, American ambassador to Great Britain the statement was made at the white house that President Harding had received from the ambassador no hint that he wished to retire and furthermore that the president desired that Mr. Harvey continue in the diplomatic service.

The white house spokesman declared the only reason for Mr. Harvey's return at this time was to take care of some personal matters which the ambassador was unable to attend to when in the United States several months ago.

JURY MAY PROBE
DEALING IN FUTURES

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, May 11.—Investigation by a federal grand jury of the trading in raw sugar futures on the New York coffee and sugar exchange was forecast today when several operators in raw sugar were served with subpoenas by agents of the department of justice.

Federal attorneys investigating the high cost of sugar refused to affirm or deny that the subpoenas were for appearance before the grand jury. While none of the sugar men subpoenaed would disclose the nature of the summonses, the news spread through the exchange and caused a general liquidation of raw sugar futures prices closing at 29 to 35 points lower than yesterday's close.

NATIONAL HOSPITAL
DAY AT PASSAVANT

Was Attended by Large Number of Persons—Addresses Made in Afternoon.

Continuous streams of visitors yesterday took advantage of National Hospital Day, to inspect Passavant hospital and partake of the entertainment planned for them by the hospital staff.

Luncheon was served at noon in the reception room and chapel combined, as the crowd was too large to be entertained in one room, about two hundred being served.

After luncheon, the visitors gathered on the lawn east of the hospital building and listened to stirring addresses by Arthur Swain, Reverend W. E. Spooner, Reverend A. E. Powell, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Woodstock, Mrs. William Floeth and Miss Ida Verner, the superintendent of the hospital.

The members of the hospital staff felt that they have gone a long way toward a better acquaintance with the public and that the public, in turn, realize more fully the nature of the work that the hospital is doing.

STATEMENT OF COURT APPEARS IN NEWSPAPERS

Was Made in Sentencing
Newspapermen for Contempt

(By The Associated Press)
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 11.—Advertisements appearing in local newspapers today carried a stenographic report of the statement made on Thursday by Judge H. P. Heflin in circuit court, in sentencing three members of the Birmingham Post staff to jail for 24 hours for contempt of court.

The men, E. T. Leach, editor; Jack Betha, managing editor; and Lewey Robinson, reporter were released from prison late yesterday. Alabama newspapers commented at length on the court's action, the tenor of opinion in most cases being that the court had established a precedent on the point that a newspaper could not properly correlate the public record of a man, though privileged per se, if it is calculated to create prejudice against such defendant in a particular indictment.

The Post men were cited to appear for publishing a news article in connection with the scheduled trial of W. E. Yerby, charged with murder. Incidentally the article mentioned that Yerby was under indictment in two other criminal cases and the story also made mention of other alleged facts bearing on his court record, municipal and state.

The court held that the Post had no more right to mention the other indictments in connection with the murder trial than the solicitor would have had to mention to the jury the man's record outside of the case under regularly offered in evidence.

The Post men contended the matter published was privileged under the laws of Alabama, and that it was not prejudicial in the sense that the law intended to imply.

There is no appeal in such cases, so the opinion of the court was final.

CERTAIN RAILROAD
EMPLOYEES TO ASK FOR HIGHER WAGES

Maintenance of Way Men
File Request With Board

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, May 11.—Indications of a concerted move among certain classes of railroad employees for increases in wages came today from the cases already filed before the United States railroad labor board and reports of negotiations pending with various carriers. Ten thousand maintenance of way men on the Great Northern road received increases ranging from $5.64 to $10 a month, effective May 15 as a result of negotiations. Increases for maintenance of way men on the Chicago & Alton road ranged from $3.40 to $10 a month.

From Cleveland came reports that rail shodmen will demand increases within a short time from all roads on which the shop craft strike of last July has been settled.

Presentation of wage demands first to carriers is specified by the transportation act, which provides that in case of inability of the union representatives and management to agree, the disputes shall be submitted to the labor board for arbitration. Already several wage disputes cases have been filed before the labor board by various unions, the latest being yesterday when maintenance of way organizations filed a petition for wage increases ranging from 8 to 15 cents an hour for its 2,300 members employed by the Denver and Rio Grande Western system.

A THOUGHT.

Ye are the salt of the earth; but if the salt have lost his savor, wherewith shall it be salted?—Matthew 5:13.

LIFE is real, life is earnest, and the grave is not its goal; Dust thou art, to dust returnest, Was not spoken of the soul. —Longfellow.

Decatur citizens are very much in earnest about traffic law violations in that city. A resolution has been adopted and forwarded to the general assembly asking that a law be enacted making it possible to punish speeders by jail sentences as well as fines.

The Legislative Voters League has issued a statement indicating the belief that there is a strong downstate demand for senatorial reapportionment and against the $100,000,000 bond issue proposal. The league sometimes makes valuable recommendations but in the present instance is influenced by Cook county opinion. Naturally there is a demand in that county for reapportionment because the county would gain largely in representation.

It is not surprising either to find opposition there to the bond issue because so large a per cent of the costs would come out of Cook county and be expended down state.

If automobilists and pedestrians changed places once a week, there wouldn't be so many accidents.

ANOTHER ATLANTIC CABLE.

If present plans carry thru, this summer will see the laying of another Atlantic cable. It is to be the largest cable in the Atlantic and will have a capacity twice that of any other now in use. It is to furnish direct communication between New York and London.

Many things have happened since the first Atlantic cable was laid. The Old World and the New have been brought closer together by swift ships, by wireless telegraphy and radio broadcasting. Yet a big telegraph company still finds it profitable to lay another wire cable through the ocean. In communication, as in transportation, there appears to be need of all the means now known to civilization. Some of them may be discarded some day, but not yet.

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

PURE LOGIC

By Berton Braley

THE amateur gardener scratched his head,
"This thing is too much for me," he said,
"I plant tomatoes,
Green peas, potatoes,
Lettuce and beans, to meet our needs;
I treat 'em kind
As I ought to do,
But all I find
When the season's through,
Is a bean or two and a lot of weeds."

THE amateur gardener thought and thought
On why his gardening came to naught;
From cerebration
An inspiration
Came suddenly into his puzzled brain:
Then he gave a wink
And he cried, "I'm sore
That I didn't think
Of that before,
A logical plan that is safe and sane!"

SO the amateur gardener bought the seeds
Of all the different sorts of weeds,
He planted thistles
And things with bristles
And all plant pests he had heard about;
Then corn and peas,
Potatoes too,
And plants like these Sprang up and grew
Till they'd choked the weeds and the thistles out!

tions are much better. The Russian people will long have reason for gratitude to the Americans who carried on this work, and to those at home who provided the money.

Yet an American correspondent in Russia reports that there is almost no gratitude for what the Americans have done, and indeed little realization of it. The Soviet government from the first has persistently misinterpreted the purpose of this philanthropic work, and spread among its people its own prejudices.

Throughout his travels, says the correspondent, Russian communists everywhere kept asking him what was the real purpose of the American Relief in Russia. When he made the obvious answer that it was to help the needy, they laughed at him. Little is known about it among the natives. There has been little publicity, and it has usually been hostile. Much more consideration has been shown by the authorities to other organizations, domestic and foreign, not doing a hundredth part of the relief work of the American association.

A good deed is its own reward, and the donors and distributors of American charity in this case need not worry about thanks. They have done their duty by starving men, women and children in a foreign land, and that is enough. The adventure would have left a much better taste in American mouths, however, if there had been some courteous acknowledgment in Russia such as is customary among civilized folk when a favor is rendered. Russia, because of the deliberate blindness and discourtesy of her present rulers, may expect less from America hereafter.

ANTI-RED FEDERATION.

The American Federation of Labor is starting a drive against the radicals in its ranks, and warning its members about radicals outside. Samuel Gompers, guiding spirit of the Federation, is determined that "reds" like those recently put on trial for criminal syndicalism in Michigan shall neither dominate the Federation nor influence it. In this stand he seems to be upheld by a safe majority of American organized labor.

The big fight is against the "one big union" idea, as it was when the I. W. W. seemed to be making alarming headway with the slogan. It is the ideal, says Mr. Gompers, of men who are determined either to "amalgamate or annihilate." In other words they want one big union or one big ruin.

"If these men," says Mr. Gompers, "had all the gold of the capitalist in their pockets, they could not better serve the capitalists to the detriment of the working man than by doing just what they are doing."

He need not have put it in just that way, emphasizing the traditional antagonism between the "working class" and the "capitalist class." The distinction between these two classes is gradually breaking down, instead of strengthening, as the Socialist prophets falsely believed it would do.

EXHIBITS SHOW GOOD WORK OF JUNIOR HIGH

Manual Training Products Have Scores of Fine Articles on Display — Other Classes Show Abundance of Work Equally as Good.

Anyone who is in doubt of the quality of work done in the Jacksonville schools should have visited the exhibit at the David Prince school Friday evening and had his doubts entirely dispelled. The year's work in the junior high school has certainly produced some astonishing results, and yet it is only a sample of the work being accomplished throughout the entire system.

The work of the pupils was shown in practically every department: manual training, domestic science and household art, history, geography, mathematics, penmanship, art, etc. The walls of the rooms were covered with manuscripts, drawings, problem demonstrations, maps, pictures, charts and art work.

The manual training exhibit was especially fine. There were scores of footstools and bird houses, which the students had made during the year. Each article bore the name of the maker on a neat card. Three group projects of exceptional workmanship were shown. Two of these were bird houses of a fancy design, mounted on standards. The third was a merry-go-round, with very realistic animals in the circle and a canopy over the entire piece, which made it look like a first class merry-go-round at the county fair.

Among the articles on exhibit in this department, where trays with wicker sides, a beautiful floor lamp made by Fred Birdsell, a reading lamp, radio cabinets, and many others.

The gradual improvement which students had made in penmanship and composition was shown in the next department. Here a number of advertisements of popular articles were also exhibited. These had been made by the students.

In the mathematics department, the walls were covered with original problems which the students had prepared. Some of these were good enough to place in a mathematics book. Several had made models of mathematical figures out of pasteboard, and one had constructed a prism out of tin and bronzed it.

In the history department the exhibits were of maps and charts of the historical events. The geography class had covered the walls with maps of nearly every country in the world. One especially noticeable piece was a map of Africa, with the products of the country fastened to the regions of their growth. The samples were placed in position on the map in a way to show accurately the location in the continent.

The art department was filled with all sorts of work that showed both skill and patience on the part of the students. Lattice work designs of gates and other figures were worked out with paper, giving a raised effect. The domestic science classes and department of domestic art also had creditable displays. Pie, cake, bread and other articles of food prepared by the students were on exhibition, and numbers of pieces of sewing were in array in the room used for that purpose.

Early in the evening the rooms were filled with interested parents and friends of the students, who showed much satisfaction at the quality of the work on exhibit.

FIRST CARLOAD

OF STRAWBERRIES
The first full carload of strawberries of the season arrived in Jacksonville yesterday, consigned to the W. S. Cannon Produce company. Cars will continue to arrive at the rate of about two or three each week.

The berries received come from Mississippi, and some consignments are beginning to arrive from the Arkansas fields. The quality this season is excellent but the price will be higher than last season, principally on account of the drought of last season, and the late frost of this spring, which killed so many of the southern fields.

Pennsylvania Hard Coal For 1923

The eastern states have just gone through their greatest coal shortage. There is no assurance that the spring and summer tonnage will ever get caught up with the demand in 1923.

On September 1st the Present Mine Wage Scale on Hard Coal Expires

The hard coal miners want more money. Their low day pay scale is about $5.00. The low day scale for soft coal miners is about $7.50. This is what the hard coal miners are asking for. It looks like more money and higher priced coal or a strike. Take your pick and take your chances.

Get Your Hard Coal Early and You Are Safe
Prices will not change much this year. The most important factor now in anthracite is that of getting it. It will be impossible to make up the lost tonnage and the east will be given the preference. So the wise householder will get his coal now while it can be obtained.

WELL KNOWN CITIZEN PASSED AWAY FRIDAY

Death of John B. Burch Came Friday Morning at Our Savior's Hospital—Funeral to be Held Tomorrow.

The death of John B. Burch, a well known resident of Franklin, took place at 8:40 o'clock Friday morning at Our Savior's hospital, where the deceased had been a patient for the past three weeks.

Mr. Burch had been in failing health for the past two years but his condition had not grown alarming until recent weeks. Everything possible was done to bring about his restoration to health but the end was inevitable. The deceased was born July 19, 1842, a son of Selby B. and Sarah Wyatt Burch, who then resided on a farm northeast of Franklin. Practically all of his life was spent in the community where he was born, and he came to be known as one of the most substantial citizens of Morgan county.

Mr. Burch was for many years a successful breeder and dealer in livestock, his business activities extending to various nearby counties. He was a man of absolute integrity and lived his life in a way which won the respect and admiration of all who knew him.

On October 1, 1868, the deceased was married to Miss Helen Rice, who passed away several years ago. Since the death of Mrs. Burch he had made his home with a son, Fred James Burch, in Franklin.

Surviving is one son and two grandsons, John Oyer Burch and Fred James Burch. One sister, Mrs. Mary E. Woods, passed away several years ago.

Mr. Burch was a member of the M. E. church for a great many years and was active in all lines of church work.

The remains were taken to the Williamson undertaking parlors and later removed to Franklin. The funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, from the M. E. church at Franklin, in charge of Rev. H. A. Sherman. Burial will be in Franklin cemetery.

Benjamin Chapin in "Lincoln," Westminster, Sunday night.

ELKS VOD-VIL REVUE WAS GREAT SUCCESS

Presented to Crowded House Friday Night—Will be Repeated this Evening.

One of the best shows ever staged by the Elks was the verdict of the large audience which witnessed the vod-vil revue given at the Grand Friday night.

The production was given under the direction of Arnold Lovejoy who has heretofore given evidence of his ability along similar lines. The performance last night was more ambitious than any Mr. Lovejoy has yet undertaken here. Its unqualified success shows that he is not only a fine musical director but an able stage director as well.

The program was something new in local home talent productions and was received with great enthusiasm by the audience. Every number was high class and it is safe to say that no better home talent effort has ever been seen in Jacksonville, noted as it is for artists of ability.

The program as published in the Journal recently was carried out and an large orchestra added greatly to the performance in its entirety.

This morning the Elks will make a grand parade to advertise the show which will be repeated this evening.

Interest in a picture of the children that is made today, grows as they grow.

Goldberg Has Fully Recovered His Health

Gains 15 Pounds, Now Eats Anything and Does More Business Since Taking Tanlac, Declares Chicago Salesman.

When such a busy man as I, R. Goldberg gives up valuable time to discharge what he regards as a debt of gratitude to a medicine, and a duty to his fellow man, it goes without saying that the preparation given this high consideration must possess unusual merit. Mr. Goldberg, who travels for the American Advertising Co., of Philadelphia, and resides at 822 S. Wabash Avenue, Chicago, recently spoke as follows of the benefits he has derived from Tanlac.

"I was in such a run-down condition that every trip I made was like pulling up stream. Sour, acid stomach, loss of appetite, headaches and dizziness were my vitally down almost to the vanishing point.

"Five bottles of the Tanlac treatment gave me a dandy appetite, fine digestion and a gain of fifteen pounds. I eat hearty anywhere I go, lug my big grip around all day, and do more business. As I owe my good health to Tanlac I don't want to hold back anything that may help others."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

PRISONERS HAD HARD TIME WITH SUCHOW BANDITS

aged to drag myself painfully towards it only to discover that it was a walled community and that the gates evidently had been closed for the night.

"I feared I would not be able to survive the hunger, pain and exposure until another dawn and I beat upon the gates with stones to attract the attention of the villagers, but it was useless.

"Bitterly disappointed I staggered around the outside of the wall until I encountered what appeared to be a dog kennel. Carefully I crept into it and there I spent the night.

Dawn brought curious countrymen timidly at first to look at me. Some of them ran away again, but I permitted others to search me, they evidently wished to make sure I was unarmed—and when they thus were reassured they escorted me into the village, the populace turning out to look me over as I passed along.

"Completely surrounded by the villagers, I was able to make known my need of food. When they understood my signs they could not do enough for me. They bathed my sore feet and simultaneously offered me food, the while jabbering ceaselessly.

"Those peasants truly were good Samaritans. When I was rested they took me to a larger town where there were some foreigners; there I was provided with clothing. From there I reached the railroad and took the train to Tsinaifu."

In my case I didn't exactly take a walk for my good friend, Hon. Mrs. Nettie T. Bush took me there in her superb Chandler car and called for me later on. A ring of the door bell roused a tremendous din of tiny barks from occupants of the back part of the establishment when a pleasant faced, elderly lady, Mrs. L. C. Smith, admitted the visitor and then stepping into the other apartment said in stern commanding tones, "Be still at once and stop that noise!" The order was obeyed promptly but soon the racket arose again in a modified form but some raps on the door brought quiet again and I found myself talking to the proprietor of the only real, genuine pug dog kennel or breeding place and the largest too in the country.

Mrs. Smith is a native of Springfield, Ill., and a cousin of the late William B. Johnson of Jacksonville. Her father was S. C. Hampton, an early settler of the capital city and she says she has been fondled by both Abraham Lincoln and Stephen A. Douglas though she doesn't remember either one. She attended the Illinois Woman's college about 1877 and has a fond recollection of good Dr. Short, then the head of the institution. Her name then was Lydia Hampton and she says she was on hand for all the good times going on.

Dear Journal:

Although this city is well toward the jumping off place, it is not free from visits of wandering Gypsies. A day or two ago a regular cavalcade passed through the place and they went in style too.

There were thirteen Hudson and two Cadillac cars in the list and all were well equipped. In the olden days we used to think the Gypsies made a deal of money trading and handling horses but none of that goes with automobiles. How they get enough fortune telling to maintain such an outfit is hard to tell and surely illustrates the old proverb that the members of a certain class of people are not all dead.

Mrs. Smith has forty silver cups and other silver articles which her pets have won and enough ribbons to make a bed quilt; a fine oil portrait of a dog, a fine oil Indian head, a beautiful table cloth, electric iron and cut glass pieces. She has four championship medals from the dog show or kennel club of New York City; two championship medals from St. Paul and hosts of others.

She has a standing order from a San Francisco man for a fancy colored pup. The man says he will wait six months to get just the kind he wants. Mrs. Smith says pugs are becoming more and more fashionable and in demand. The shorter the nose and the more numerous the wrinkles the more valuable is the animal.

It was indeed interesting to go among the cute little creatures and see their good manners and training. There are over thirty of all ages and a great racket they keep up when not restrained but each has a name and it was fine to see the lady stand at the edge of the enclosure and call one after another to her side. Although there was more or less racket each diminutive creature had a name and would respond to it and though sometimes two names sounded very much alike an inflection showed which was meant. In the rear of the house are the respective abodes of the dogs and each has its own bunk separate from the others and knows it well.

In the morning when Mrs. Smith goes to market she steps into the yard and bids the dogs repair to their own rooms and they do so decorously and wait her return with their food which she buys in the city.

Each little creature goes to its own abode and the door is shut and there they stay till the return of their mistress which, needless to say, is very welcome to the diminutive canines.

Her rule all is by love instead of fear. She never scolds and a whip is actually unknown in Cupid Kennels. She never raises her voice but talks in a calm, quiet manner and her little charges obey her.

What will become of them when she is gone is hard to tell though she would like to take them with her.

I am daily awaiting word of pleasant weather at home that I may hasten to dear, old Jacksonville, the best place on earth and I have seen a few in my times. Surely May should bring bright and warm, pleasant days.

Facts About Minerals for HOGS

Both scientific and practical scale tests show beyond question that hogs need a mineral supplement to their ration. The big problem is to select the right kind of a mineral mixture. Here are seven facts that will help you do this:

Fact 1. There is fully as much difference between the effect of the best scientific mineral mixture made and the cheap preparations, as there is between the crop raised on the richest of fertile soil and that raised on the poorest spot of thin land you have ever seen.

Fact 2. A mineral mixture must be made very largely of minerals for building bone, making good blood and solid flesh—not chiefly a mixture of medicines with a few minerals added.

Fact 3. In addition to supplying an abundance of minerals, there should be four definite results accomplished: (1) Believe and prevent constipation. (2) Prevent the accumulation of worms. (3) Maintain perfect digestion. (4) Because it is most profitable to market hogs at the earliest date, special ingredients should be included to aid in putting flesh on rapidly.

Fact 4. There is abundant practical evidence that a mixture made of equal parts, salt, ashes, and coal is a positive injury to hogs and never a benefit. Salt in such a proportion with any mixture is very apt to be harmful. Coal in any proportion is constipating and damaging to the intestines.

Fact 5. The ingredients in a mineral mixture must be in exactly the correct proportion to each other. Nothing but the most careful and long-continued tests will determine this.

Fact 6. The ingredients themselves must be of the right grade and quality. If inferior ingredients are used the question of formula is of no consequence. Unless the minerals are of the right grade they will pass through the animal undigested. Obviously such minerals will do no good—they are absolutely worthless.

Fact 7. In order to get uniform results a mineral mixture must be uniformly mixed. The mixing of minerals is far more difficult than the mixing of grains or liquids. The weight of the different mineral ingredients varies greatly, hence they separate readily. This separation is very hard to detect. You can't get paying results from a few cheap minerals carelessly thrown together.

These facts constitute a Code of Honor for the oldest and largest concern today engaged in manufacturing a mineral mixture for hogs—the MoorMan Mfg. Co. MoorMan's Mineral Mixture meets every requirement of the above rigid specifications. It is the last word in mineral mixture perfection.

All of the above facts have been worked out and verified in our own privately operated experiment station. It is the largest mineral mixture experiment station in the United States. The results of its research work, both practical and scientific, may be depended on absolutely.

A. A. U. W. Elected Officers Yesterday fore the election yesterday did not include these offices.

Various reports were made at yesterday's session, including one by Miss Lobdell on proposed legislative measures. Miss Lobdell was appointed some time ago to study various bills and recommend to the branch the ones she thought worthy of support. Upon Miss Lobdell's recommendation the branch endorsed the bill for the creation of a federal bureau of education, the child labor amendment to the constitution and the Shepherd-Towser bill. Other bills were laid aside for further consideration. Record of the bills endorsed by the A. A. U. W. branches will be forwarded to the national organization for action.

There was also some discussion of plans for the coming months, and Miss Maria Fairbank reported that plans are progressing for the annual luncheon, which this year is scheduled for Saturday, June 2.

At the close of the session came a very pleasant social time, when tea was served by I. W. C. teachers resident at the college.

Mrs. E. H. Gray entertained sixteen tables at bridge Friday afternoon at her home, 1135 West State street, in honor of Mrs. A. L. Taylor, who is soon to leave for her new home in Kankakee.

Following the hours of play a luncheon was served. It was a very pleasant social event, although all in the company voiced their regrets that Mrs. Taylor is no longer to be a resident of Jacksonville.

WHITE HALL TO FORM

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

WHITE HALL, May 11. — A campaign to bring about the organization of Chamber of Commerce in White Hall took definite shape at a banquet in the Knights of Pythias hall Thursday night that was addressed by Frank F. Barth of Chicago, representing the Illinois Chamber of Commerce. There were 150 plates, representatives of all the business interests of the community and including a delegation from Jacksonville, who contributed immensely to an awakening to the necessity of such organized effort to meet the new order of things in community affairs. It was estimated that the sum of $6,000 is necessary to organize and maintain it during the first year, and this sum was pledged in the form of membership fees of $25 each. A secretary will be employed. The affair followed a merchants' gift award in White-side park during the afternoon, attended by a crowd of 5,000 people, being perhaps twice the crowd that attended the evening May Day program there.

Miss Nettie Smith, 762 Freedman street, left for Chicago this morning for a visit with her sisters, Mrs. James Odell and Mrs. Roy Decker.

Mrs. Ernest Sovern, 125 Westminster street, left this morning for Chicago for a visit with her sister who is studying voice in Chicago.

Harold and Jerald Long of Litterberry are spending a few days with their grandmother, Mrs. Hannah Long, 925 West North street.

Program at Luncheon Friday Related Entirely to Club Affairs—Standing Committees Named.

SEVERAL RECORDS BROKEN IN GAME

PHILADELPHIA, May 11.—Several records were broken or equalled at the National League park today when Philadelphia defeated St. Louis 20 to 14 in a hard hitting contest.

St. Louis made 22 hits, which gives the visitors seventy hits for the four game series, beating the record of 59 hits for four contests made by Boston here recently.

Mokan hit two home runs, both times with two men on base, and doubled on another trip to the plate. Mann made two home runs while Bottomley had four hits, one a double. Eight pitchers were used by the two teams and 27 players participated in the contest. The score by innings:

CHICAGO, May 11.—Pancho Villa, former American fly weight champion won from Battling Murray of Philadelphia in a fast ten round bout here tonight. Murray broke his nose in the ninth when the two boxers butted heads.

A small house, not sufficient to pay the guarantee, delayed the start of the bouts until after 10 o'clock. Villa had left the hall but returned when the Chicago chapter of the national sports alliance guaranteed it would make good the deficit.

The small box office receipts caused a substitution for Tommy Loughran of Philadelphia, carded in a 10 round bout with Jimmy Darcy. Danny Needham, who took Loughran's place went down for the count of eight in the fourth round and Darcy was awarded the bout on a technical knockout.

Do you know Baseball?

Questions
ONE—If a batted ball first strikes foul, rolls a considerable distance in foul territory, and then settles on fair ground between home and third, is it fair or foul?
TWO—What happens when a base runner is hit by a batted ball?
THREE—If a fielder or catcher block a base runner without having the ball in his possession, and then touches the runner out before he can reach the base, what happens?
FOUR—With a runner on first, batsman hits a fly to the outfield which falls safe without being touched. The runner on first, fearing it will be caught, plays it safe and is thrown out at second. Does the batsman receive credit for a hit?
FIVE—Can a base runner after over-running first base turn to the left in returning to that base?

Answers
ONE—It is a fair ball if it finally settles on fair territory between home and third, despite the fact that it first hit foul.
TWO—When a base runner is hit by a batted ball he is out. The batsman is entitled to first base. No other runners can advance unless forced to make room for the batsman.
THREE—The runner is entitled to the base, which he was prevented from reaching by the obstruction of the fielder.
FOUR—The batsman does not receive credit for a hit. In no case shall a base hit be scored when a base runner is forced out by the play.
FIVE—A base runner can turn to the right or left without liability to be put out after over-running first base, provided he make no effort to advance toward second.

Bradstreet's Report
Will Say Today

NEW YORK, May 11.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: Practically countrywide cold weather with snows or freezing temperatures in many northern areas has retarded retail buying and crop germination. In country districts the pre-occupation of the farmer in endeavoring to make up for earlier lost time tends to restrict personal buying and also marketing of left over crops, but mail order trade still is active. Wholesale trade shows further quieting and collections have also improved slightly. In industry while the pace is still fast, there are evidences in the reports of postponement of new work announced as well as in the decline of building expenditures in April from the peak totals of March, that costs of labor or material
have been pushed too high.
Weekly bank clearings $7-046,375,000.

ANNUAL FIELD DAY TO BE HELD TODAY

Big Event of School Year at School for the Deaf—Health Pageant in Evening

The hours today will be crowded full of interesting events at the School for the Deaf, with the Field Day exercises starting at 8:30 this morning, a real baseball game between the Missouri and the Illinois schools at 1 o'clock this afternoon, and the spectacular Health Pageant which will be held on the lawn this evening at 8 o'clock, to say nothing of the industrial exhibits to be held in the school building during the day.

In the Field Day exercises there will be contests for all classes of boys from rope climbing to shot putting, with something doing every minute.

The baseball game is sure to be a hummer, for the Missouri boys do not feel very good over the trimming administered to them by the Illinois boys last fall on the football field, and want to even things up. A statement has become public that the teachers of the school furnished the donation for bringing the Missouri boys here for the game, and the management wishes to announce that thanks are due, not only to the teachers, but to all of the employees, as they contributed handsomely toward this expense.

The industrial exhibits will be in charge of the following members of the staff: Domestic Science, Mrs. H. A. Molohon and Miss Effie Race; bakery, Hiram Huff; printing, W. D. Harrington; carpentry, F. H. Cogswell; art, Miss Edith Jordana millinery, Mrs. William Suby photography, Miss Malinda Daniels.

Following is the list of principal characters for the pageant in the evening:

Queen of Health—Mary Lindstrom.

Hope—Alma Barton.

King of Common Sense—Ralph Miller.

Queen's Jester—Frank Guzzardo.

Resolutions Adopted.

Inasmuch as this has been a particularly successful year for the Junior high school Parent-Teacher association, we wish to express our appreciation for the spirit of co-operation and harmony that has been manifested throughout the year and to mention those to whom we are particularly obliged:

First. To the board of education for the use of the building and equipment; also in this connection we mention the courtesy and efficient service of the janitor, Mr. Hill.

Second. The various committees who have most effectively performed their duties.

Third. Those speakers who have given some of our programs so much inspiration and value. B. P. Shafter, Dr. R. V. INVESTIGATE DEATH OF CEDRIC PORTER

Child Who Was Victim of Accident Dies—Jury Says Pneumonia Was Result of Injuries

An inquiry into the death of Cedric Porter, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. DeLos Porter, which occurred Thursday evening, was conducted yesterday afternoon by Coroner C. A. Rose. The inquest was held at the Gillham Funeral Home, where the remains were removed from Passavant hospital.

The jury announced the verdict that the child came to his death from lobar pneumonia, caused by an accident. On April 17, the boy was struck by a truck driven by William Mounts and belonging to Perry & Gruber.

At the inquest Mount testified that he had a chauffeur's license at the time of the accident. He said he was driving about ten or fifteen miles an hour when he struck the Porter boy. He stated that he ran his truck about five car lengths and stopped after he saw that the boy had been knocked down. Mount said he got down off the truck, picked up the boy and carried him to his home.

Another witness was Mrs. Gertrude Hogan, who was near the scene at the time of the accident. She saw a lad named Frankie Blue run across the street. The Porter boy was close behind him and was struck by the fender of the Perry & Gruber truck. According to Mrs. Hogan's testimony the mother of the injured child ran down the street, picked him up and carried him into the house.

Fred Davis, who appears to have been coming down the street with Frankie Blue at the time, also testified to the details of the accident. Dr. W. P. Dunecan submitted a deposition, stating that Cedric Porter had received a fracture of the right leg in an accident, and that he had contracted lobar pneumonia, which caused his death.

The coroner's jury consisted of H. H. DeFries, foreman, Howard Woodward, G. A. Coffman, Charles L. Sparks, William Johnson and W. H. Parish, clerk.

Funeral services for Cedric Porter will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Gillham Funeral Home.
